Explore

10 Almwch

A peaceful town, once one of the busiest ports in Wales. The old harbour is well-worth a visit to the Copper Kingdom visitor centre.

11 Beaumaris

This captivating seaside town boasts an array of restaurants and shops, a pier, stunning views over the Menai Strait and Snowdonia, and charming streets with picturesque pastel cottages.

Visitor's top tips

Simply enjoy the beaches, they are some of the best we've ever been to and most have a dog friendly area.

Go to Treath Bychan beach, approx 1 mile, and visit the beach café for breakfast or lunch.

There is a Park Run Saturday mornings 9am at Newborough Forest.

There are boat trips around Puffin Island heading out from Beaumaris.

Fantastic walks along the coastal path, long or short and in any direction.

Visit Breakwater Country Park at Holyhead, also the sunken garden at Holyhead Port for a picnic. A bit further off is the wonderful Newborough beach and forest, and best of all the lovely atmospheric island of Llandwyn – not to be missed.

Plane spotting at RAF Valley. Car parking is available to view the planes.

There is a good coastal cafe for fish and chips in Moelfre.
