Visitor's top tips

Enjoy a stroll, hike or dog walk from site to the enchanted and beautiful Falling Foss Tea Garden and Waterfall.

Runswick Bay, Robin Hoods Bay and Sandsend are gorgeous beaches where dogs are allowed.

Cinder Track is a disused railway line now used for off-road cycling or walking from Whitby to Scarborough. It is 21 miles each way, with woodland and coastal sections.

Whitby Museum has a fantastic range of exhibits and collections, from fossils and mammals to maritime heritage.

Staithes is a lovely little seaside village with winding lanes, dramatic scenery and cosy, higgledy-piggledy cottages.

Beacon Farm makes the best ice cream we have ever tasted! It's home made on the farm with local ingredients and a choice of mouth-watering flavours.

There's brilliant dog walks in the area, and Whitby is really dog-friendly too.

If you're a fan of Heartbeat, a visit to Goathland is a must!
